

THIMBLE CINCH ADD-ON PATTERN

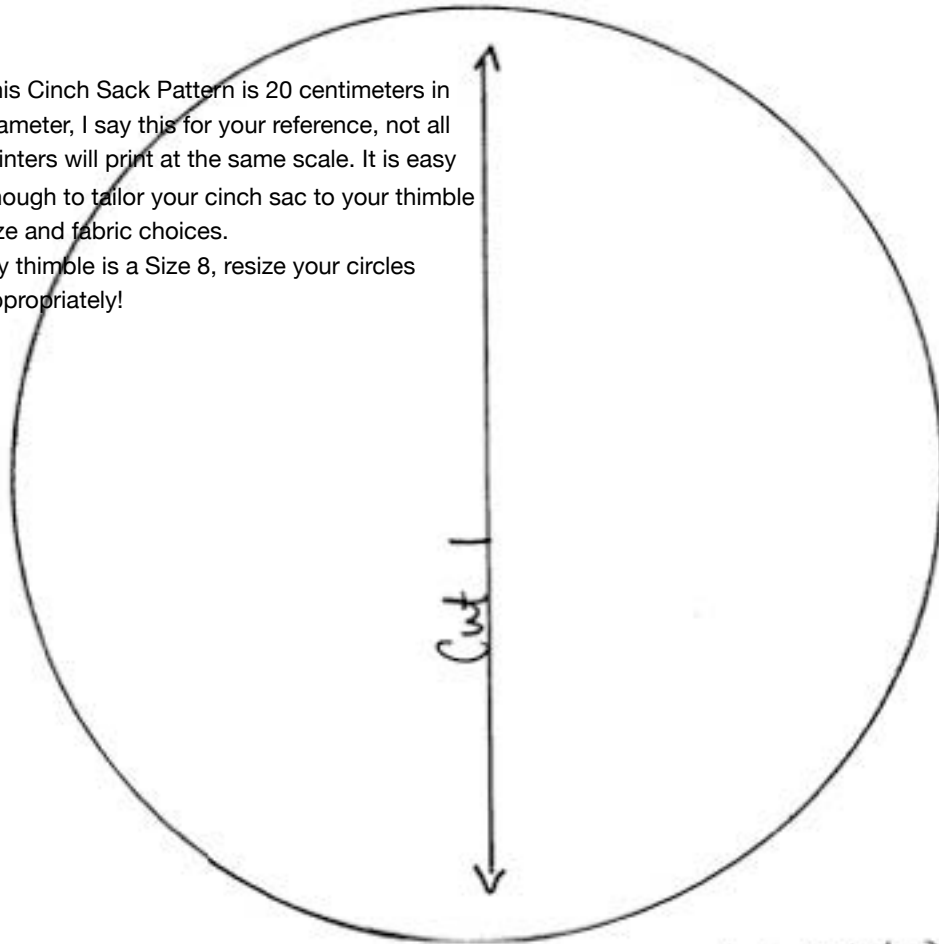

A playfully unfolding addition to the Gather your Sew-plies Pattern. Suggested Fabrics: silk habotai and cotton flannel. Lightweight, floppy fabrics are encouraged. Don't hesitate to embroider and embellish appropriately. I would love to see a whole bunch of interpretations! A Flickr group is coming up, anyone up for making one of these purses and have a visual purse-a-long on Flickr? Say yes. Next Add-on Pattern to come: Scissor Keeper. Also! (!) for even more emphasis, Bottoms Up, A mod you will want to try out. Maybe you might even design your own add-on for the pattern, in which case: Let's link the patterns up and have even more fun! We each need to have different Sew-plies at the ready. Right?

More Tutorial pdf's to come, sign up for TheCleverGuild's newsletter automatic email pattern updates, news of upcoming classes and more. You will be first to have it!

This Cinch Sack Pattern is 20 centimeters in diameter, I say this for your reference, not all printers will print at the same scale. It is easy enough to tailor your cinch sack to your thimble size and fabric choices.

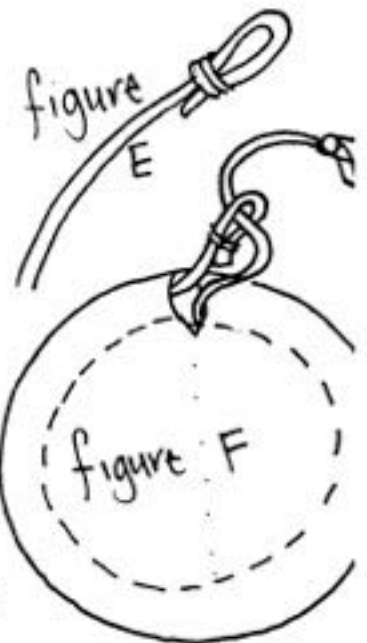

My thimble is a Size 8, resize your circles appropriately!

- ① Iron seam allowance ^(on half circles) back (fig A)
- ② Right sides together, but ironed seams right up against one another and pin to main cinch sack. Machine sew $\frac{1}{4}$ " S.A. around outside edge. Clip, turn clip and iron.

- ③ Leave $\frac{1}{2}$ " opening for the "cinch" tie, hand sew half circles together. (fig C)
- ④ Machine sew complete circle $\frac{3}{8}$ " from finished edge (fig D)
- ⑤ fold $\frac{3}{4}$ " Silk cord down on itself, whip stitch. (fig E)

- ⑥ Thread non-loop side of silk cord through edge of sack & loop. Cinch sack closed (fig E)
